GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE. This will be a service that focuses upon the Seven Last Words of Christ with time for meditation. It begins at 7:00 PM.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE. This year our community is coming together to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord at sunrise on Easter day. The service will begin at 7 AM on the shore at Everglades National Park. Music is being provided by the Combined Choirs, Chokoloskee Church of God Praise Team, Tom and Tina, . Clergy from our sister churches are participating. Pastor Bob will bring the morning sermon. Following the service coffee and donuts will be served here in our Fellowship Hall.

EASTER MORNING services will be held as usual here at our church at 11 o'clock. A wonderful service of music and worship is being planned to once again bring to our lives the glorious promise of eternal life brought by the promise of Easter. Be here!

How about this

More and more I am hearing people say how much they are enjoying our website. There is much to learn about our church if you make a habit of logging on to our website. The church history is on it, the weekly Order of Worship is there as well as a weekly and monthly rotating calendar, all of our activities, the policies of our church on weddings and funerals, ways you can contact our church by e-mail and leave a message, just to name a few. There is even a spoken greeting by the pastor. We are getting the word out about Adopt-a-Chaplain so other churches can know about and get into that program. Tell your friends about our website and encourage them to log on. You can also hear a Daily Word reading and spoken scripture.

It's on my heart

One of the things I have always looked forward to doing is getting up early in the morning and going out to get the newspaper. I love to read it before the sun comes up. I feel I “have a handle” on the day before it begins. After I have read the paper I put my head back, close my eyes, and get a little slumber before I wake up again. That is the time I take the Bible from the table beside my chair and read some verses in it. Now, this may not be the way you start your day, but there is one part to my routine I hope you have in yours. I hope you have a time during the day for daily Bible reading. I believe that we should all know how to “rightly divide the Word of Truth”, and the only way to do that is by reading it. So, if you can make time to read the Word, and have a word of prayer before every meal, and a prayer upon rising in the morning and before going to sleep at night, you will certainly have a chance at having a good day.
